

Full-Service, Expert Recovery Act Reporting

Recovery Act Reporting Without The Headache

The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA) has delivered much-needed funds to many recipient organizations. With those funds come the responsibility to complete quarterly reports for the Federal Government and awarding agencies. It's a lot of work, and as many award recipients will tell you, it's often frustrating.

The Fedarra Concierge Service eliminates the need for you to learn new reporting terminology, process, software and guidelines. We take care of the reporting effort for you from start to finish, reducing your involvement from days to one hour.

What You Don't Have To Do	What Fedarra Does For You
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Learn ARRA and agency reporting requirements Register at DUNS, CCR and federalreporting.gov Obtain a FRPIN Find and enter award information Complete job estimation Write award, status and job narrative Work with subs and vendors Determine compensation reporting Work through problems Call the OMB or agency help desk Review for errors and omissions Validate report for completeness Submit report File confirmation receipt Respond to agency feedback Create documents for audit preparedness Answer audit questions Do it over again next quarter 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Completes all the reporting tasks to the left Reduces your involvement to one hour Delivers prompt turnaround Furnishes a bound report Supplies audit documentation Stores your report in a secure, off-site location Provides live support if you are audited Sends quarterly reporting reminders

We Do It For You

- ✓ Confirm If You Need To Report
- ✓ Registration
- ✓ Data Collection
- ✓ Agency Compliance
- ✓ Project Status Write-up
- ✓ Job Estimation
- ✓ Audit Documentation
- ✓ Accuracy Check

Proven Expertise

Fedarra's experienced staff has been helping government organizations and businesses manage their Federal reporting requirements since 2002. We assisted housing authorities, municipalities, airports, universities, businesses, and many other organizations – over 100 in all – during the most recent reporting period. And 100% of Fedarra's customers' reports were completed and submitted on time.

We save you the problems and the frustration that are common with reporting. We also deliver you peace of mind by providing audit documentation that 95% of small and medium organizations don't prepare and federalreporting.gov does not deliver.

Pricing

Fedarra's service is a tremendous value when compared to completing quarterly reports on your own. We reduce what is often weeks of work to one hour of your time.

	Price
Recovery Act Report	$599/award
RAMPS Report (HUD specific)	$199/award

Prices are per reporting period. A 10% discount is available for annual service commitments with advanced payment. There is a one-time, $199 set-up cost for organizations that have not reported previously.

Testimonials

"This is such a headache. It is just not worth it for us to do it ourselves."

Ann Ferguson, Executive Director
City of Linden Housing Authority

"I didn't sleep for weeks over this stuff. Fedarra took all the stress out of these reports."

Pam Webb, Manager
Commerce Housing Authority

"We received a Recovery Act grant on September 25th to build a new fire station. We turned to Fedarra at the last moment to help get the reporting done. They completed our registration, prepared the report over a weekend, and made sure it was submitted before the final deadline."

Randy Cox, Chief
City of Bryant, Arkansas

"Fedarra developed nine reports for us – six of them were submitted on the first day and all were completed well before the deadline."

Juan Roskell, CEO
JC Roskell Mgt. Consultants

"I waited for hours on the phone trying to register with the ARRA reporting system. Fedarra was there to help. They quickly answered my questions, helped with registration, prepared my report and made sure we made the submission on time. They are professional, easy to work with and fast."

Lee Stephens, Executive Director
Stewart County Housing Authority

"Fedarra saved us the cost of having to send staff to classes, hunt down answers and work through an unclear reporting process. That saved us money."

Linda Cooper Foreman, Director
Teachers Development Group